Miss Williams' Magic Moment

Lets just say that in the dress rehearsal Year 2 were more rehearsal and less dress. With our Monarchy going with the "minimalistic" approach!

Christmas Fair—What an Event!

The Christmas Fair was once again, a fabulous success. Thanks goes to you all for attending and supporting school. Every penny that is spent at the fair goes back in to the school and is spent on the children so it's really important that events such as these are supported as they are.

I also have to thank the staff who not only stayed behind but produced such wonderful items for their business enterprise stall. There was a lot of competition to see who could make the most profit!

My final thanks goes to everyone who helped on stalls, setting up or coordinating the whole event which takes weeks of preparation and multiple meetings behind the scenes. Thank you to FEPs who we are once again indebted to for their selfless support to school.

Chorley FM Christmas Song Broadcast

We welcomed Chorley FM into Year 4 to record the children singing some Christmas songs. They will be broadcasting this a few times over Christmas including the 17th December and Christmas Eve both at 2pm. Listen out for it!

John Lewis Advert!

Next week we will be watching the John Lewis advert in assembly, as part of a whole school approach to creative writing! If you would like to watch this or talk about this with your child at the weekend, then please feel free to do so. We can't wait to see their creative minds flourish!

Learning Menu Check—in

Next Wednesday is our Learning Menu Check-in where you have the opportunity to bring your homework in to share it with your class. You don't have to bring anything in, many of you might have blocked the homework to do over Christmas, but it's just a chance to share your ideas.

Remember, you are welcome to present the work in whichever way you choose, even if it's not suggested on the homework sheet.

There are different ideas on how to present your homework in the back of the Learning Menu books.

Christmas Fun...in the right way!

Gone are the days of DVD and toy days. Whilst we are fully embracing the Christmas spirit, rest assured that the staff and children will be working hard up to the last moment, giving the children a continually enriching curriculum. We ask that you keep the children in school and avoid any holidays and breaks in term time. Thank you for your understanding and support for your child's education.

Eccleston Christmas Choir

On Wednesday, the fabulous Eccleston Christmas Choir will be performing a few chosen carols at The Fields Community Centre. We are looking forward to entertaining the audience and having the opportunity to spread some Christmas cheer throughout the local community.
